

VeriTrademark Consultations: How Do They Work?

At VeriTrademark, we schedule several consultations each week. Although we prefer to schedule consultations for 10 AM or 2 PM during weekdays, we offer flexible scheduling options.

Where Are The Consultations Held?

Consultations are held in the third floor conference room of the Grand Central Building in Pioneer Square. Printable directions are on the front page of the VeriTrademark website, and our address and phone number is as follows:

VeriTrademark
216 First Avenue S
Seattle, WA 98104
(206)281-0795

We like to get to know our clients and thus we prefer face to face consultations for this reason. We can also schedule a phone consultation at the client's request.

What Can I Expect In Terms Of Advice?

A typical consultation helps you to frame a legal problem more sensibly. It is not a necessary condition that you seek to hire us after the consultation, as our experience is that people find consultations beneficial and valuable on their own merits.

People schedule consultations for many reasons. A consultation may deal with a specific legal problem or issue or may be useful simply to help you to understand the nature of intellectual property and how it might apply to you.

How Much Does A Consultation Cost?

VeriTrademark charges $100 for a 30 minute consultation, and $200 for a 60 minute consultation. All fees must be paid in advance via credit card or check (we make it very easy for you to pay by credit card – we accept Visa, Mastercard or AMEX and can do it from the comfort of your own home without even providing us any credit card information if you wish). If a consultation must be changed or cancelled, we can reschedule up until 24 hours before the scheduled appointment, but no refunds are given for previously scheduled consultations under any circumstances.
